

Eric Raits to me

Michael and Zach:

Jim is coming in tomorrow to pick up the white Land Rover. I will give him a couple of postcards with prints of two photos by Katy and me. Your offices deserve some nice Florida landscape and wildlife photos. I can send you some examples.

I'm still shaking my head after seeing your operation. You have eliminated most of the headaches; nearly all except you still have to deal with the public.

Hope to hear from you.

Eric

Zach:

I've told a number of people about your unique operation. I gave Jim a couple of post cards for you but I'm sure he was all wrapped up in his new car. He loves it!

I'll send you some photos in a few minutes in a separate email.

It was good to meet you and Michael. What a fantastic operation & great way to buy a car!

Eric
