To the team at CashOnlyAuto.Com:

I wanted to take this time to tell you how truly happy I am with the experience that I recently had with your company. Let me take a moment and tell you this story. In November I finished paying off my wife's minivan. I was so happy because I had been making car payments on various vehicles for the better part of 15 years. So when I was in a car accident in February, I knew that my 11-year-old Cavalier would not be getting repaired. Here I was faced with the prospect of more car payments again. I checked out a few new cars but somehow I just wasn't mentally ready for the payments again. I started looking around online for used vehicles and came across the name of CashOnlyAuto.Com. I went to your website and looked around at the vehicle inventory. It looked promising so I made the appointment to come and check it out. I suppose most people have generally a negative view of used car dealers to begin with, so I'm sure I was a bit skeptical to say the least. However my concerns were quickly put to rest when I saw the quantity of quality vehicles available for a great price. You guys actually have the cars you say you have! Unlike some other dealerships that show you something to get you in the door and then try to sell you something else. The process itself is nothing short of terrific. In the past car buying for me would take nearly the entire day, from haggling over price to trade-in, etc. Let me tell you we soon spotted a beautiful blue 2000 Cadillac Deville selling for $6600. We feverishly put down our deposit and were able to bring our mechanic back the next day to examine the car. I would say over the course of the two days we spent no more than 90 minutes to pick out the car have it examined and drive away. Time well spent because everyone has been telling me how much they like my car. I don't believe I ever heard that in 11 years owning a Cavalier. It really is amazing, the car turns people's heads and I don't even know that they see me until they tell me how much they like it. Let me close by saying that all features on this car work perfectly and the interior is in mint condition. I would urge anyone out there looking for a quality vehicle to run to CashOnlyAuto.Com, they won't be disappointed. Thanks again and also thanks for some truth in advertising, this definitely turned out to be the best car deal that I have ever made.

Sincerely

John Denton
