

RE: 2004 LEXUS LS430

Hi Zach

I received the wheel portion of the spare tire and it will work fine. Thank you for the help.

I want you to know that now that we have completed our transaction that I feel your service for this process is great and I am well satisfied with my new car. The car turned out super as you had assured me. And the quality and service from you was as much as anyone could expect. Also, the basis of the transaction was to get quality for a very good price was accomplished.

Thank you and I will be recommending you to others...
